

CALIFORNIA MEXICO
TRADE INITIATIVE XI
Delegation to Mexico City
April 17-20, 2016

DELEGATE
APPLICATION

The 11th Annual California Mexico Trade Initiative in Mexico City provides an opportunity for participants to meet with key federal officials, diverse business industry representatives and organizations to discuss international commerce, foreign investment opportunities and cultivate political and business relationships.

Trade facilitation, innovation, energy reform, global workforce training, tourism and border infrastructure are some of the major policy areas. Plus...

- Make invaluable connections with Mexico's top officials and industry leaders
- Participate in high level meetings with administration officials and agencies such as the ministries of Communications and Transportation, Economy, Energy, Foreign Relations, Governance, Health and Tourism, Embassies of the United States and Canada, the Presidency of Mexico, and both houses of the Federal Congress.
- Gain access to our Mexico's top decision makers and receive briefings on the impact of reforms recently approved by Mexico's congress. Such reforms include: energy, telecommunications, labor tax, and economic competition.
- Delegates will also meet with key business leaders of the nation's capital and tour prominent companies that specialize in manufacturing, pharmaceuticals, energy and transportation.
