DOWNTOWN PARTNERSHIP, CHAMBER ISSUE JOINT STATEMENT RE. AB 504 VETO

Kris Michell, president and CEO of the Downtown San Diego Partnership, and Jerry Sanders, president and CEO of the San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce issued the following statement in response to Governor Brown's veto of AB 504:

"Governor Brown's veto ensures Civic San Diego's mission to advance transformational change in our urban neighborhoods continues. The Downtown Partnership and San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce look forward to supporting Civic as they carry on creating jobs, providing affordable housing and attracting billions of dollars in private investment to the region. Thanks to the support of Governor Brown and Mayor Faulconer, we can move forward with stakeholders from both sides of this issue to create world-class communities." -Kris Michell and Jerry Sanders

The Downtown San Diego Partnership is the leading advocate for the branding, revitalization, economic vitality, and growth of Downtown San Diego. The Partnership is a member-based, non-profit organization representing more than 300 San Diego businesses who are committed to the success of San Diego's vibrant and world-class urban center. For more information about the Downtown San Diego Partnership, visit: www.downtownsandiego.org.

The San Diego Regional Chamber is the hub for connections and collaboration among the regional business community, and uses that clout to advocate for public policies and candidates that support economic growth and the creation of jobs for all businesses. As the largest local Chamber on the West Coast, representing approximately 2,500 businesses and an estimated 300,000 jobs, the San Diego Regional Chamber is fighting to make San Diego the most business-friendly region in California.
