Name: San Diego Regional Chamber Young Leaders

Tagline: Live. Work. Lead.

Mission: Driving young professional growth in the San Diego Cali-Baja region, by providing the relationships, mentoring and community awareness necessary to become an influential business leader.

Membership: SDYL is made up of a diverse group of 21 to 40 year-old professionals who are emerging leaders in their field, with a commitment to community involvement and professional growth. SDYL is comprised of a 40-person board of directors and an unlimited number of members.

General membership is application-based, contingent upon board approval, and on a per-person basis. Board membership is highly selective due to the limited number of spots and must be approved by the SDYL nominating committee. Board seats will be distributed based on industry and other criteria to ensure a diverse representation whenever possible.

Annual dues for participation are:

- Employees of Member Businesses: $100
- Employees of Non-Member Business: $150
- Student/Government/Non-Profit Rate: $75

SDYL membership* includes:

- Four (4) quarterly meetings per year (featuring education and relevant guest speakers) followed by a networking happy hour held at the most popular San Diego locations
- Chamber-organized philanthropic opportunities throughout the year
- Mentor/Mentee opportunities with Chamber Board members, including the President & CEO and elected officials, regional executives and/or entrepreneurs
- Invitations to the exclusive Chamber "Good Government Speaker Series" events
- Opportunity to contribute fresh perspective to Chamber initiatives
- Member-exclusive educational opportunities
- Opportunity to participate on the SDYL intramural sports team

Members are encouraged to participate in a minimum of three (3) meetings/networking events and philanthropy projects as directed by the Board*

Board members will participate in at least two additional meetings yearly*
