Amie Edstrom Joins Cavnignac & Associates as Surety Department Account Administrator

SAN DIEGO, CA -- (November 9, 2015) – Amie Edstrom has been hired by Cavnignac & Associates as an account administrator within the agency’s Surety Department, announced Jeffrey W. Cavnignac, CPCU, ARM, RPLU, president and principal of the San Diego-based risk management and commercial insurance brokerage firm.

In her new position, Edstrom serves as the primary contact at the agency for processing bond requests and servicing all surety customer accounts. Among her essential duties are maintaining client and servicing documents, communicating to the surety department staff all surety company requirements needed to process bonds and other documents, and maintaining control and summary sheets.

Prior to joining Cavnignac & Associates, Edstrom served as the Small Business Administration (SBA) commercial real estate administrator within the SBA Division of US Bank in Scripps Ranch, where she was employed for four years. In that position, she closed and managed commercial real estate portfolio and construction firm loans. She was promoted to that post after serving as the SBA division portfolio administrator, SBA operations and finance administrator and, initially, as a universal banker for US Bank.

Edstrom graduated from San Diego Mesa College with an Associates Degree in graphic design. She is accredited by the National Notary Association as a California Notary.

Born in Vacaville, a small town in Northern Calif., Edstrom moved to San Diego when she was 12 and presently lives in the local community of Ocean Beach with her husband, Chance. In her leisure time, she enjoys drawing and painting.
