NASSCO Shipbuilders to Host Neighborhood Clean-Up in Barrio Logan

In collaboration with locally-based partners: BAME CDC, Our Lady of Guadalupe, Burger King on 28th Street, and Donut Bar.

- WHAT: This Saturday hundreds of shipbuilders from General Dynamics NASSCO and members of the local community will come together to restore and clean areas of Barrio Logan surrounding the NASSCO shipyard.
- WHEN: Saturday, June 4, 2016 – 8:30am to 12:00pm (kick-off ceremony at 9:00am)
- WHO: NASSCO shipbuilders and their families and members of the Barrio Logan community will be present. Community partners include BAME CDC, Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish, and Burger King – all located within the Greater Logan Heights area. Donut Bar will also be there with fresh donuts.
- WHERE: General Dynamics NASSCO – 2798 East Harbor Drive, San Diego, CA 92113
- VISUALS: Restoration efforts outside of the shipyard with cranes and ships in the background. A NASSCO spokesperson will be available for interviews and information (in English and Spanish).
- ABOUT: General Dynamics NASSCO is the only major shipyard on the West Coast of the United States conducting new construction and repair.
- NASSCO is a champion of environmental excellence having received multiple awards, including: San Diego Recycler of the Year Award, USCG Award for Environmental Excellence, SDG&E Energy Champions Award for Manufacturing and more.
- In 2012, NASSCO received the Governor's Environmental and Economic Leadership Award (GEELA)—being only one of two companies in San Diego to ever receive a GEELA.
