

Teresa Stivers, CEO

Walden Family Services

Teresa Stivers is the Chief Executive Officer of Walden Family Services. In that role she works closely with the Board of Directors, oversees all development campaigns, and provides direction and leadership toward the achievement of the agency's mission, vision, values, and strategy.

Stivers brought substantial expertise in nonprofit management, public policy and public relations to Walden gained from her work as Program Director and Executive Director of the Child Abuse Prevention Foundation; as Deputy Chief of Staff for former San Diego Mayor Susan Golding and as an Account Executive with Nuffer, Smith, Tucker.

Stivers is Chair of the Education and Workforce Committee of the San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce; Chair of the Quality of Life Committee of the San Diego Taxpayers Association; a Strong Families, Thriving Communities Steering Committee member of the Clinton Foundation's Health Matters Initiative; and an Executive Committee member of UCSD Chancellor's Community Advisory Board.

Contact info:

(619) 727-5881

tstivers@waldenfamily.org