Jordan Harrison is a professional speaker, educational consultant, and international youth development specialist born in Chicago. Most importantly, he is a disruptor to make a difference. He lives a mission-driven life that focuses on radical imagination and eradicating inequality with the constant reminder of our collective humanity.

Mr. Harrison's work has allowed him to speak to more than 250,000 people on anti-racism, equity, inclusion, and how to build people and institutions on equity. He currently serves as the Senior Director of Programs for Reality Changers where he has worked with more than 15,000 eighth through 12th grade first-generation, low-income, college-bound students in San Diego. In addition, he is also the President of the Alumni Association of the Student African American Brotherhood, a program that aims to increase the number of Black males graduating from college. Jordan works with students, educators, and professionals to provide solutions to one question: "How do we create environments where every person can succeed, no matter where they come from?"

A 2020 graduate of LEAD San Diego's Impact program, Mr. Harrison is committed to the challenging work of changing systems which perpetuate inequities. His work recently earned him a full-ride fellowship to Harvard University, where he earned his Master's in Education in 2018.
