Venus Molina is currently serving as Chief of Staff to Councilmember Jennifer Campbell in the City of San Diego's Second District. Previously, Ms. Molina served as the Chief of Policy for Council President Myrtle Cole and Director of Community Affairs and Government Relations for the Jacobs Center for Neighborhood Innovation. Her commitment to continue to develop her community is evident through her career, as well as her participation in different community organizations. Ms. Molina has always served as a spokesperson and representative for the people who live in San Diego.

Ms. Molina is very active and dedicated to the San Diego community. She is MANA de San Diego's current President of the Board of Directors and has been involved with the organization for the past 30 years. Ms. Molina is dedicated to MANA's mission of empowering Latinas through education, leadership development, community service, and advocacy. Her devotion to her community is showcased through her work at MANA. Since her participation in the first Hermanitas Youth Leadership Mentor Program in 1987, Ms. Molina has continued to develop her leadership skills to continue creating a positive impact in San Diego and the Latino community. She has also been a past MANA de San Diego scholarship recipient and she credits the organization for supporting her in her path to success.

In addition to her commitment to MANA de San Diego, Ms. Molina is a Commissioner for the International Friendship Commission in the City of Chula Vista. She is a member of the Mexican-American Business and Professional Association and was a qualified nominee for the San Diego Magazine Woman of the Year in 2016 and the Latino Impact Awards in 2015.
