

Pemcor Packaging Name Announcement

San Diego, California - November 16, 2020 - San Diego Paper Box Company has been renamed Pemcor Packaging. The new name reflects a change of ownership and is more aligned with the company's strategy to pursue growth in a number of markets in the United States, Mexico, and Canada.

San Diego Paper Box Company was acquired in 2018 by Pemcor Investment Corporation and subsequent to the acquisition, significant investments have been made enhancing the company's facilities and production capabilities, building on the proud 100-year plus history of San Diego Paper Box Company. Pemcor Investment Corporation was founded in 1992 and has been active in operating businesses as well as value-added real estate projects in a number of North American markets.

Pemcor Packaging is committed to serving clients in a broad range of industries with innovative and sustainable packaging solutions. The company is based in a state-of-the art 55,000 square foot manufacturing facility at the site of the former La Mesa Airport in San Diego. Its primary staff is based in the San Diego facility, with additional personnel located in Mexico. In addition to these locations, the company is working to expand its geographic footprint throughout the US and Canada.

While the company's name is changing, our team and legal identity are not changing. Your dedicated sales representative and customer support teams will continue to be available whenever needed to provide creative packaging solutions that strengthen your brand. During the months ahead we look forward to sharing more details with you about our new name and our expanded capabilities.

We value your business and look forward to serving you for many years to come.
