

Golf Tourney Committee Member - ie Ring Leaders, Cheer Captains & Wranglers

Do you want to have fun, play big and learn to produce events with undercover transformational experiences? Ready to up your game and gain experience with a nonprofit doing awesome work? Shakti Rising's annual golf tourney is much loved, very successful and ready to leap to the next level. It's an established event with a 20+ year track record of success. We are looking for committed, inspired volunteers with strong community relationships and project management backgrounds to grow this event in terms of recognition, reach and sponsorship. This volunteer opportunity starts now and goes through event wrap up at the end of September.
