Chamber Statement on Newly Announced United States Tariffs Pause

SAN DIEGO (April 9, 2025) – The San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce has issued the following statement regarding the newly announced United States tariffs pause:

“We are encouraged by the Administration’s pause on international tariffs and hope this signals moving in a direction of eliminating them entirely,” said Jessica Anderson, San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce Interim President and CEO. “Our conversations this week during our Mission to Washington, D.C., underscored the importance of the ongoing dialogue between the San Diego business community and our federal partners. We saw advocacy in action, and the outcomes have global impacts.”
